

The Times Weekend June 2009.

Jane MacQuitty writes about Saint Mont “Le Faîte” White 2006 SW France from Plaimont:

“The keeper.

One of the most unusual Gascons I’ve tasted in years from the excellent Plaimont co-op who created this appellation, risibly still only of VDQS quality. Anyone supping on its smouldering, spicy, exotic, verdant fruit would give it full AC status. Wait two more years and you will be rewarded with a richer, oakier, fuller, peachier Gascon. Drink now until 2011.”